

Theory for your tenth grading

(Current belt: Black Tag 1st Kup
Grading for: Black Belt 1st Dan)

Choong Moo means 'Loyalty-Chivalry' which was the name given to Admiral Yi Soon-Sin of the Lee Dynasty who was responsible for the defeat of the Japanese in 1592 and 1598. He was reputed to have invented the first armoured battleship the Kobukson. The pattern finishes on a left hand technique to symbolise his regrettable death.

The colour black signifies the opposite to white, therefore signifying maturity and proficiency in Tae Kwon-Do and the student's imperviousness to darkness and fear.

THERE WILL BE A MULTIPLE-CHOICE WRITTEN THEORY PAPER AT YOUR GRADING. PLEASE ENSURE YOU HAVE REVISED THEORY UP TO AND INCLUDING THIS GRADE.
